

Today in my cubby house, I'm a world-class cook;
Famous for my dishes that taste as good as they look.

I can cook pizza, muffins and pancakes galore;
Eggs or fried chicken, the customers beg for more!

Delicious cakes, biscuits and a golden roast;
Tea and scones, tastier than Vegemite on toast.

I can make apple, apricot and strawberry pies;
Or just throw lots of things in to make a pie surprise.

Loads of scones, tea, jam and a chocolate cream bun;
It looks so delicious, I may just have to have some.

Chopping and mixing, it's one of my busiest days;
I'll finish the day off with spaghetti bolognaise.
